Ghost Writer:

Ghost Writer's Inn Josie Malone, 2025-09-08 Former Army Ranger Mac MacGillicuddy served his country for almost twenty years fighting in one hotspot after another Since he retired from the military he s roamed the U S unaware he s accompanied by a woman with a hidden agenda He enjoys writing action adventure romances which never turn out the way he plans or expects or designs Still his agent publisher and readers love them Learning he s inherited the old family hotel Mac heads to Baker City Washington for Christmas He ll help restore the hotel write his next book which will hopefully end the way he wants and perhaps discover a home Registered Nurse Lillian Bryce didn t hesitate to answer the call when her country needed her after the attack on Pearl Harbor She joined the US Army and went off to war but didn t return home at least not alive Since she loved books she went back to the Seattle Public Library where she d spent so many happy hours She was perfectly content studying researching observing and enjoying the other patrons the live ones until she saw Mac MacGillicuddy She was fascinated focused on him well on his writing on his books except he had them all wrong So she fixed them not once but again and again and again regardless of how many times he tried to change them while they traveled the country Now they re off to Baker City Will the two of them find love in a place where ghosts are real or just continue writing about it
