

Government failure – When public sector intervention leads to inefficiency

Caused by:

- Lack of incentives. Public sector workers less likely to be paid for performance / profit targets.
- Levels of bureaucracy. Governments tend to have more layers of administration and planning.
- Political interference. Decisions made for short-term political gain – rather than sound economics, e.g. keep on unproductive workers.
- No consistency. Change of government often leads to change of approach and new political initiatives.
- Moral hazard – Government can act lender of last resort - this may encourage banks to take risks knowing they will be bailed out.
- Regulatory capture – When government agencies become too friendly with business/groups they are trying to regulate.
- Unintended consequences. Policies to reduce relative poverty 'means-tested benefits' can create 'welfare dependency'.

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
