ORANGES EVERYWHERE

Bentley was wandering through the trees. The air smelled of oranges all around him. The weather was perfect, and the oranges were growing bigger by the day. He liked to walk through the groves, and loved the smell of the oranges, but he didn't like that he and his family ate oranges all the time. Sometimes, he wanted to avoid them for weeks at a time.

He wished his family could grow other things, like corn, or the ingredients for his favorite dip that his mom made. His mouth watered just thinking about his favorite dip. Yes, those ingredients would be better than oranges all the time.

"Mom, why do we have to have oranges almost every day?" Bentley asked.

"Well, since we grow them, there are plenty around," his mom replied.

"Does every kid eat as many oranges as we do?" he asked.

"No, definitely not. There are parts of the country and parts of the world that don't have the type of weather that oranges grow in. We're actually very lucky!"

"So some kids don't eat oranges at all?"

"We actually send oranges all over, so that if people can't grow their own oranges, they can still buy and eat them," said Mom.

"Hmmm... so people move foods all over the world? Are there foods that I like that don't grow here?"
