Families And Their Learning Environments:

Families and their Learning Environments Kevin Marjoribanks,2017-04-28 First published in 1979 this study is one of the first works of educational research to include detailed assessments of family environments in an analysis of performance of children at their schools Much of the research is based on data collected from families in Australia Canada and England and the findings have been integrated with results from other family environments research The study also explores social and psychological conceptual positions that will have relevance for further educational investigations This book will be of particular interest to those studying the relationship between family environments and education as well as the sociology of education

Families As Learning Environments for Children Luis Laosa,2014-01-15 Building Powerful Learning Environments Arina Bokas,2016-12-24 Building Powerful Learning Environments takes a close look at the trends of the Post Digital Era through the prism of how systems of education can meet the needs of our times and offers a systemic approach to creating a different canvas for learning that aligns to these changes At the center of the book are the concepts of a learning environment and a culture of partnerships A learning environment has traditionally been viewed as something that educators created and sustained inside their schools Building Powerful Learning Environmentsexpands this understanding to embrace families communities other learning institutions and businesses not as helpers but as co builders of a powerful learning environment It demonstrates that schools have to take the first step in this direction by becoming the center of a new educational culture a culture of partnerships This book looks into various ways of creating this culture at district school and classroom levels It provides practical guidance strategies and tips as well as some conceptual understanding of what can be done to create and support this culture at various levels of educational leadership The Educational Review ,2000
