Family Literacy Reissue Young Children Learning To Read And Write:

Family Literacy Denny Taylor, 1998 Family Literacy presents the stories of six families each having a child considered by the parents to be a successful reader and writer El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2005, 2005 El-Hi Textbooks and Serials in Print, 2006 Overtested Jessica Zacher-Pandya, 2015-04-24 This timely book explores what is often overlooked in policy debates about the education of English language learners how the day to day dynamics of the classroom are affected by high stakes testing and the pressures students and teachers experience and internalize as a result The author presents and analyzes classroom observations student work and test scores as well as interviews with students and teachers A disturbing picture of today's overtended public school classroom emerges from the events and practices described in this book While hard to believe all the depictions presented took place in a real elementary school classroom and reflect the current culture of extreme accountability Overtended not only describes the flaws in our current accountability system but it also provides real world solutions that can have an immediate and positive effect at the classroom state and national level Chapters address key debates such as how to measure proficiency the validity of various language assessment tools the overuse of assessment and the risks and benefits of teaching language arts to English language learners via mandated structured curricula Jessica Zacher Pandya is an Associate Professor in the Departments of Teacher Education and Liberal Studies at California State University Long Beach This book tells an important tale that cannot be conveyed by numbers and tables It is important information for teachers for those who depend on employ and train teachers and for those who create the policies under which teachers are required to operate From the Foreword by Robert Rueda University of Southern California author of The 3 Dimensions of Improving Student Performance Finding the Right Solutions to the Right Problems How many more dire tales of schooling for assessment must be told before we realize that teaching and testing are not the same and that scores on standardized multiple choice achievement tests are a sorry substitute for an engaging learning environment In this book Jessica Zacher Pandya reaches across ideological and institutional borders to offer reasonable pragmatic solutions for change Linda Valli Jeffrey David Mullan Professor of Teacher Education Professional Development College of Education University of Maryland Zacher Pandya's invaluable book exposes the injustices and absurdities of our high stakes accountability era Just as importantly it limns a more academically robust and culturally relevant instructional vision for English language learners Gerald Campano University of Pennsylvania Resources in Education, 1996

Words Were All We Had Maria de la Ruz Reyes, 2015-04-17 This engaging collection examines the personal narratives of a select group of well respected educators who attained biliteracy when they were young students and in the era before bilingual education These autobiographical accounts celebrate and make visible a linguistic potential that has been largely ignored in schools the inextricable and emotional ties that Latinos have to Spanish The authors offer teachers important lessons about the individual potential of their Latino students These stories of tenacity and resilience offer hope for a new generation of bilingual learners who are too often forced to choose between English and their native language

A Call to Creativity Luke Reynolds, 2015-04-24 In this age of standardization many English teachers are unsure about how to incorporate creative writing and thinking into their classroom In a fresh new voice Luke Reynolds emphasizes that creativity in our lives as teachers and in the lives of our students is one of our most vital needs in the 21st century Based on his own journey as an English teacher A Call to Creativity is a practical guide that shows teachers how they can encourage and support students creativity in the English language arts classroom The book offers both the inspiration and practical steps teachers need to engage their students through a variety of hands on projects and worksheets that can be used immediately to insert creativity into any standards based curriculum Book Features Adaptable projects tested in diverse school environments Guiding questions at the end of each chapter Lesson plans for creative writing assignments Over 30 pages of worksheets and sample assignments Luke Reynolds has taught 7th through 12th grade English in Massachusetts and Connecticut public schools as well as composition at Northern Arizona University He is co editor of the bestselling book Burned In Fueling the Fire to Teach This book puts wheels on high ideals in a way that can move us toward the kind of education our students deserve and our best teachers desire Parker J Palmer bestselling author This book sounds a hopeful note in the current era of teaching It shows us we can still be passionate and practical creative and collaborative at a time when too many feel it is impossible From the Foreword by Jim Burke author of The English Teacher's Companion I can't think of a more important topic or a more inspired treatment of it than this book I'm not just recommending this book I can't wait to teach it and use it myself Bravo Luke Reynolds Viva Creativity Jeffrey D Wilhelm Boise State University author of You Gotta Be The Book Second Edition Every chapter in A Call to Creativity is a real gem Using humor and his gift as a storyteller Luke Reynolds shows teachers not only how creativity can be woven through standards based curricula but why it is essential to do so Christine Sleeter professor emerita California State University Monterey Bay co editor of Teaching with Vision Luke Reynolds provides a purposeful framework to help teachers transform the fundamental elements of contemporary practice into classroom experiences that awaken students creativity passion and energy Sam Intrator professor of education and the program in urban studies Smith College This marvelous new book by Luke Reynolds shows how passionate teaching is lit by soul and vulnerability knowledge of self on the part of the teacher and a willingness to explore what can really happen in a classroom if you challenge students to engage their muscular and creative minds Kirsten Olson Institute for Democratic Education in America IDEA author of Wounded by School

Reading Girls Hadar Dubowsky Ma'ayan, 2012-04-06 Reading Girls captures the voices and literacy experiences of a diverse group of urban adolescent girls The author an experienced researcher and middle school teacher intertwines investigations of multiple literacies technologies race class gender sexuality and gender expression to provide a provocative look at what helps and what hurts adolescent girls in school Through engaging case studies we see how traditional schooling fails to make room for crucial life topics such as grappling with sexual or racial identity understanding gang culture or coming of age in urban America Each chapter concludes with concrete strategies for improving both in and out of school practices to better serve young girls especially marginalized students

Reading Time Catherine Compton-Lilly, 2015-04-24 While teachers cannot travel back in time to visit their students at earlier ages they can draw on the rich sets of experiences and knowledge that students bring to classrooms In her latest book Catherine Compton Lilly examines the literacy practices and school trajectories of eight middle school students and their families Through a unique longitudinal lens the author has studied these same students from first grade we see how students from a low income inner city community grow and develop academically revealing critical insights for teachers about literacy development identity construction and school achievement Based on interviews reading assessments and writing samples Reading Time advocates for educators to Provide opportunities for students to develop long term relationships with teachers and administrators Allow children and parents to share their stories to identify obstacles that students encounter as they move through school Collaborate and learn from students former teachers as well as inform their future teachers Develop portfolio systems and longitudinal records that highlight children s emerging interests abilities and potential for the future Catherine Compton Lilly is an associate professor in Curriculum and Instruction at the University of Wisconsin Madison She has taught in the public school system for 18 years Her books include Reading Families Re reading Families and Bedtime Stories and Book Reports The analysis here runs deeper than other contemporary critiques of accountability regimes and standardization inviting us instead to consider how time schooling and literacy have always been co constructed Reading Time features compelling examples of literacy practices that traverse generations which could only be understood through interviews and observations extending over time Kevin Leander Vanderbilt University Learning to Read and Write International Reading Association, 1998 Journal of Nursery Education ,1994 Young Children ,1995 Metalinguistic Awareness and Beginning Literacy David B. Yaden, Shane Templeton, 1986 Current Index to Journals in Education ,1997 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001 The Tradition of Didacticism in America's Early Reading Textbooks, 1780-1830 Douglas Alan Jones, 1990 Books in Print Supplement ,1994 What Works in Teaching and Learning ,2003 Learning to Read Naturally Margaret Greer Jewell, Miles V.
