Falling From Silence:

Falling from Silence David R. Slavitt, 2001 Falling from Silence is the seventy third book by David Slavitt the prolific poet translator and editor His amazing rate of production has only amplified and refined the power of his art This is the work of an accomplished veteran a craftsman who laments the limitations of what his hard earned talent can do in the face of age and loss He turns to religion reads the classics and in moments of cheer that may not be mere mania he horses around and fools with the words that have been his toys but nothing helps or more accurately nothing helps enough It is nevertheless true that as he says in Pen phonemes that danced in the light like gnats will suddenly light on some twig of a notion a held breath can make tremble in an unpredictable motion like this pen s that no one would think could bear the fruit of truth Ranging in length from four lines to several pages and in tone from devilish and droll to dignified and desolate the poems here examine death and aging and bespeak the reassuring connection between the generations Slavitt s wry wit profound humanity and agile intellect illuminate every page of Falling from Silence In contrast to its title it is indeed a resounding poetic triumph

The Theosophist, 1894     Poetry Harriet Monroe, 1921     Africa Frank Harold Lee, 1930     St. Nicholas Mary Mapes Dodge, 1906     The American Political Scandal David R. Dewberry, 2015-08-13 In this holistic examination of political scandal in the United States David Dewberry argues convincingly that such scandals follow a consistent narrative centered largely on media coverage and politician performance rather than the actual corruption or ethics violation committed In making this argument he also provides an analytical framework for understanding the patterns underlying scandals regardless of their unique political contexts Dewberry dissects four major examples Teapot Dome Watergate Iran Contra and Clinton Lewinsky and explores the roles of various constituencies involved in creating reacting to and mediating the scandal What is the true role of journalism within the context of scandal What persuasive techniques do politicians employ to develop and perpetuate scandals What motives and values bring scandals to a close In addition to the core cases Dewberry incorporates briefer examples from contemporary and ongoing controversies including Anthony Weiner s sexting scandal money and sex in Congress how cover ups have gone digital and Chris Christie s Bridgegate The result is a fascinating and thoughtful look at the relationships among political discourse free speech and democracy     Lament in Jewish Thought Ilit Ferber, Paula Schwebel, 2014-10-10 Lament mourning and the transmissibility of a tradition in the aftermath of destruction are prominent themes in Jewish thought The corpus of lament literature building upon and transforming the biblical Book of Lamentations provides a unique lens for thinking about the relationships between destruction and renewal mourning and remembrance loss and redemption expression and the inexpressible This anthology features four texts by Gershom Scholem on lament translated here for the first time into English The volume also includes original essays by leading scholars which interpret Scholem s texts and situate them in relation to other Weimar era Jewish thinkers including Walter Benjamin Franz Rosenzweig Franz Kafka and Paul Celan who drew on the textual traditions of lament to respond to the destruction and upheavals of the early twentieth century Also included are studies on the textual tradition of lament in Judaism from biblical rabbinic and medieval lamentations to contemporary Yemenite women s laments This collection unified by its strong thematic focus on lament shows the fruitfulness of studying contemporary and modern texts alongside the traditional textual sources that informed them

History of England from the Fall of Wolsey to the Death of Elizabeth James Anthony Froude,1872 The Complicit Text Ivan Stacy,2020-12-10 The Complicit Text Failures of Witnessing in Postwar Fiction identifies the causes of complicity in the face of unfolding atrocities by examining the works of Albert Camus Milan Kunera Kazuo Ishiguro W G Sebald Thomas Pynchon and Margaret Atwood Ivan Stacy argues that complicity often stems from narrative failures to bear witness to wrongdoing However literary fiction he contends can at once embody and examine forms of complicity on three different levels as a theme within literary texts as a narrative form and also as it implicates readers themselves through empathetic engagement with the text Furthermore Stacy questions what forms of non complicit action are possible and explores the potential for productive forms of compromise Stacy discusses both individual dilemmas of complicity in the shadow of World War II and collective complicity in the context of contemporary concerns such as the hegemony of neoliberalism and the climate emergency
