Hepp examines a wide variety of sources including diaries and memoirs left by middle class women and men of the region Following Philadelphians as they rode trains and trolleys read newspapers and shopped at department stores he uses their accounts as individualized guidebooks to middle class life in the metropolis And through a creative use of photographs floor plans maps and material culture The Middle Class City helps to reconstruct the physical settings of these enterprises and recreate everyday middle class life shedding new light on an underanalyzed historical group and the cultural history of twentieth century America Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal ,1904 Searching for Mary Schäffer Colleen Skidmore,2017-10-13 Mary Sch ffer was a photographer writer botanical painter and mapmaker from Philadelphia well known for her travels in the Canadian Rockies and Japan at the turn of the twentieth century In Searching for Mary Sch ffer Colleen Skidmore takes up Sch ffer s own resonant themes women and wilderness travel and science to ask new questions tell new stories and reassess the persona of Mary Sch ffer imagined in more recent times Public and private archival collections in the United States and Canada set the stage for this engrossing exploration of Sch ffer s creative collaborative and competitive enterprise amid the cultural complexities of Philadelphia s science and photography communities and the scientific tourist and Indigenous societies of the Rocky Mountains of Canada In this impressive book Colleen Skidmore uses her considerable skills as a social historian of photography to shed new light on the remarkable life of Mary Sch ffer She knows the stories the characters and presents a social history that is fresh and convincing Skidmore s conclusion is brilliant and will certainly serve as a catalyst for further research and study of Mary Sch ffer Donna Livingstone President and CEO Glenbow Museum Bookseller & Stationer and Office Equipment Journal ,1928 September Monthly Idea Book Becky S.
