Wells,2018-02-08 Recently I set myself to put down what I believe I did this with no idea of making a book but at the suggestion of a friend and to interest a number of friends with whom I was associated We were all we found extremely uncertain in our outlook upon life about our religious feelings and in our ideas of right and wrong And yet we reckoned ourselves people of the educated class and some of us talk and lecture and write with considerable confidence We thought it would be of very great interest to ourselves and each other if we made some sort of frank mutual confession We arranged to hold a series of meetings in which first one and then another explained the faith so far as he understood it that was in him We astonished ourselves and our hearers by the irregular and fragmentary nature of the creeds we produced clotted at one point inconsecutive at another inconsistent and unconvincing to a quite unexpected degree It would not be difficult to caricature one of those meetings the lecturer floundering about with an air of exquisite illumination the audience attentive with an expression of thwarted edification upon its various brows For my own part I grew so interested in planning my lecture and in joining up point and point that my notes soon outran the possibilities of the hour or so of meeting for which I was preparing them The meeting got only a few fragments of what I had to say and made what it could of them And after that was over I let myself loose from limits of time and length altogether and have expanded these memoranda into a book
