Raymond E. Jones, Jon C. Stott, 2000 For most of this country's history Canadian children's literature with the exception of such notable authors as Charles G. D. Roberts, Ernest Thompson Seton, L. M. Montgomery and Grey Owl, Archibald Belaney was not a growth industry. British and American books were readily available and had already achieved approval in the centres of intellect or fashion. More recently, however, with a larger and more diverse population and with the support of numerous publishers specializing in the field and a growing list of annual awards to honour excellence in both writing and illustrating, Canadian children's books have become an important part of our ongoing literary culture. Canadian authors and illustrators from Farley Mowat and Mordecai Richler to Gordon Korman, Monica Hughes, William Kurelek and Dennis Lee have become among our best known cultural exports. In Canadian Children's Books, Professors Raymond Jones and Jon Stott provide teachers, librarians and other educators, parents and relatives and students of children and of children's literature with a comprehensive and detailed examination of this now rich field. Each of the 133 entries on authors and illustrators presents factual and critical information along multiple dimensions. In addition to authors and illustrators of historical and contemporary importance in the English mainstream, creators of ethnic, Aboriginal and French Canadian origin also are included. There are representatives of regions: the North, the East, the West and the rest between and of all genres: retold folktales and myths, mystery, science fiction, fantasy, sports, wilderness, adventure, animal, epic, chapter books, picture books, poetry, stories for reluctant readers. Appendices list the winners of the major English Canadian children's book awards and sources for further reading.

Told in the authors' own words, these lively biographies describe the creative process and offer advice to today's young writers. Learn how they create wonderful books, where they get their ideas, what their desks look like and what their favourite books were when they were growing up.

Becoming Ruby Kathy Stinson, 2003 As she develops new sexual feelings and watches her relationships with her family and with boys change, fifteen-year-old Ruby Nan Larkin struggles to understand her mother's persistent disapproval.
