Kenneth D. Boa

Evangelism In Perspective:

Perspectives on Evangelism Gene Gurganus, 2001-02-01 This book deals with the four perspectives of effective evangelism The Historical Perspective traces evangelism from the OT through the Dark Ages The Biblical Perspective proves the primacy of evangelism in light of the plight of man The Practical Perspective discusses evangelism and proposes a workable program for the local church The Prophetic Perspective gives a prognosis of evangelism in the new century

Biblical Perspectives on Evangelism Prof. Walter Brueggemann, 2011-07-01 In this timely and provocative work Walter Brueggemann applies his experience and skills in the area of biblical interpretation to the theme of evangelism He argues for the importance of considering afresh how the Bible itself thinks and speaks about evangelism how it enacts the dramatic claims of the good news Brueggemann here describes evangelism as a drama in three scenes concerning 1 God's victory over the forces of chaos and death 2 the announcement of that victory and 3 its appropriation by those who hear the announcement This same dramatic sequence as he shows is many time re enacted in the Bible the times and circumstances of the re enactment may differ but the essential message as well as the structure of its presentation remains the same

Evangelism in Perspective Robert Emerson Coleman, 1978      Effective Intercultural Evangelism W. Jay Moon, W. Bud Simon, 2021-08-24 We live in a multicultural society but many Christians hesitate to engage those of other faiths about Christianity Exploring evangelism from the perspective of four major worldviews Jay Moon and Bud Simon unpack the intercultural dynamics at hand when sharing the gospel across cultures offering contextual evangelism approaches that are relevant biblical and practical      African Christian Theology, Volume 2, Number 1, March 2025 Joshua Robert Barron, 2025-10-14 African Christian Theology is the academic journal of the Association for Christian Theological Education in Africa ACTEA The mission of ACTEA is to strengthen theological education through accreditation scholarship and support services to serve the church and transform society The journal is one way in which ACTEA engages theological educators and church leaders in addressing relevant issues facing the church and society in Africa African Christian Theology serves the whole of Africa and provides a venue for conversations between different regions of Africa as well as an organ through which African voices can address World Christianity at large Following in the footsteps of Kwame Bediako Byang Kato K Mana Lamin Sanneh Andrew F Walls and Isaac Zokou the journal promotes World Christianity perspectives through deep engagement with African contextual realities Articles are published in English French and Portuguese each article has a trilingual abstract in those languages ACTEA was founded in 1976 by the Theological and Christian Education Commission of the Association of Evangelicals in Africa AEA Under its continued sponsorship ACTEA operates with internal autonomy in the accreditation of programmes of theological education throughout Africa in order to stimulate the improvement and standardization of such programmes and in order to secure academic recognition for such programmes wherever possible especially among the constituencies of these institutions in Africa and among similar institutions and their constituencies overseas The Study of Evangelism Paul W. Chilcote, Lacey C. Warner, 2008-02-13 Christians and communities of faith today are rediscovering evangelism as an essential aspect of the church's mission. Many of the resulting books in the marketplace however have a hands-on orientation often lacking serious theological engagement and reflection. Bucking that trend, The Study of Evangelism offers thirty groundbreaking essays that plumb the depths of the biblical and theological heritage of the church with reference to evangelistic practice. Helpfully organized into six categories, these broad, diverse writings lay a solid scholarly foundation for meaningful dialogue about the church's practice of evangelism.

Perspectives on the World Christian Movement (4th Edition) Ralph D. Winter, Steven C. Hawthorne, 2009-06-01 Perspectives on the World Christian Movement presents a multi-faceted collection of readings exploring the biblical, historical, cultural, and strategic dimensions of world evangelization. Writings from more than 150 mission scholars and practitioners, over 60 of them new to this edition, portray the history and anticipate the potential of the global Christian movement. Every one of the 170 articles and sidebars offers practical wisdom enabling Christians to labor together in bold biblical hope to finish the task of seeing that Christ is named and followed among all the peoples of the earth. The Fourth Edition contains over 60 articles and sidebars that are new to this edition. Many articles have been updated and revised. The Ministry of Development in Evangelical Perspective Carl Ferdinand Howard, Henry, Robert Lincoln Hancock, 1979. Presents a picture of synthesis and partnership of evangelism and social action. It provides a stimulus and springboard to discover the unique ways we should compassionately respond to people denied the means and dignity of choice both from the standpoint of the gospel and the improvement of their physical well-being. Evangelism in Reformed Perspective, 1977 Evangelism and Social Involvement Delos Miles, 1986 Conformed to His Image Kenneth D. Boa, 2009-12-15. What does a relationship with God look like and how do we obtain it? It is vital for church leaders to grapple seriously with this question for past answers no longer suffice. Lives well lived, not just words eloquently spoken, must become our response. The quality of our relationship with God is what will influence the health, potency, and witness of the church in an increasingly complex and hostile world. Designed for use as a college or seminary course, Conformed to His Image helps us build our lives on a fully biblical perspective. Exploring twelve approaches to Christian spirituality in depth, Dr. Kenneth Boa corrects our tendency to pick and compartmentalize. Pointing the way instead to an integrative, whole-life approach, Dr. Boa shows how each spiritual paradigm discussed is just one important facet in the gem of authentic and powerful New Testament living. With chapter overviews and objectives, questions for personal application, a glossary, and a list of key terms, Conformed to His Image will prove a defining text for the student, pastor, and church leader of today and tomorrow. 12 Facets of the Complete Christian Life: Relational Spirituality, Loving God Completely, Ourselves Correctly, and Others Compassionately, Paradigm Spirituality: Cultivating an Eternal versus a Temporal Perspective, Disciplined Spirituality: Engaging in the Historical Differences, Exchanged Life Spirituality: Grasping Our True Identity in Christ, Motivated Spirituality: A Set of Biblical Incentives, Devotional

Spirituality Falling in Love with God Holistic Spirituality Every Component of Life under the Lordship of Christ Process Spirituality Being versus Doing Process versus Product Spirit Filled Spirituality Walking in the Power of the Spirit Warfare Spirituality The World the Flesh and the Devil Nurturing Spirituality A Lifestyle of Discipleship and Evangelism Corporate Spirituality Encouragement Accountability and Worship Philosophy, Science, and Theology of Mission in the 19th and 20th Centuries: The philosophy and science of mission J. A. B. Jongeneel,1995 Rethinking Evangelism Ben Campbell Johnson,1987 Worldview as Worship Eddie Karl Baumann,2011-08-01 The goal of many evangelical educators is to facilitate biblical thinking and the worldview transformation of their students Yet aside from upholding a set of moral behaviors or maintaining positions on issues perceived to be Christian the goals and aspirations of most evangelical young people differ little from their unbelieving peers As George Barna has noted We have a generation coming up that isn t looking at Christianity to answer spiritual concerns We either change or we lose them Worldview as Worship contends that the approach taken by most evangelical educators to the issue of worldview transformation has neglected to address two fundamental components of worldviews First that our initial worldviews are not philosophical systems but rather faith dispositions and that worldview transformation cannot simply present the biblical worldview as a more rational or logical system but must address issues of the heart as well as the mind Second unlike philosophies that are individual worldviews are communal and are learned and transformed within the context of community practice Appealing to Paul s teaching in Romans 12 1 2 Worldview as Worship approaches the renewing of your mind as the result of the believer s presentation of themselves as a holy sacrifice which is your spiritual service of worship The book advocates an approach to worldview transformation that focuses on believers as apprentices rather than simply as students an approach that holds true to the biblical model of discipleship As a result worldview transformation works best when the application of faith to the issues of learning and life are modeled by the faith community and where students are given the opportunity to put faith into practice

Evangelizing Adults Glenn C. Smith,1985 An interdenominational guidebook to evangelization of adults including information on parachurch organization and on resource agencies Evangelism and Politics John C. Barrett,2020-02-20 In a fallen world politics will be a brutal at times violent sport Grandstanding demonizing misleading and lying are the native language of political debate Violence is historically how political conflicts are ultimately resolved This fact raises important questions about our faith Should Christians participate in politics and government If so how should we participate Evangelism Politics argues that Christians should participate in politics and government but their ultimate goal in doing so is evangelism not political change The way Christians participate in politics is therefore generally more important than the specific policies they advocate for In short Christian participation in politics should be marked by the fruit of the spirit At the same time Christians should not be naive in thinking godly engagement in politics guarantees political success Ungodly tactics are effective and Christians will be at a political disadvantage when they refuse to use such methods Nevertheless

Christians should refuse to use them because they see God not the government as their ultimate protector and provider and godly engagement in politics as a way of providing an evangelistic witness to society that fulfills the Great Commission

The Christian Century ,1930     A Reflection on Diaspora Cross-Cultural Evangelism Abeneazer Gezahegn

Urga,2015-02-20 Recent decades have provided Christians with an increasing interaction with various world religions The growth of immigration from non Christian nations combined with a greater global awareness through travel and communication have confronted Diaspora Christians with the reality of diversity in faith culture and practices This book which is in your hand will remind you that many men and women in the Bible served God even more tremendously in a foreign land than in their own home country Reading this book will help Diaspora Christians to mobilize their minds and hearts to see the evangelistic purpose of God for them and their church in whatever country they are in But this book is not only for Diaspora churches It is also for Welcomer churches since it will help them to understand how to integrate with the Diaspora churches to cooperate and recognize their common ground of mission with the intention of reaching the lost together Pastor Daniel Habte Eritrean Church Planter Amarillo Texas This is a great piece of work that must be made available for Africans to read Abeneazer has carefully outlined our challenges we face or mistakes we do as African Christians Owusu Ansah Boakye Ghanaian PhD Candidate Texas State University This book is an important contribution to the Diaspora Church which represents a massive amount of observation and careful thinking Abeneazer inspires and re energizes the Diaspora Church Christians to share the Gospel with others with love and passion regardless of the challenges facing the Church today As a Diaspora Christian in Europe I have found the book to be eye opening and it gives me a fresh perspective on the greatest mission of all Engineer Mintesinot T Wodajo Sweden This book helps us to see the Gospel as the solution for the needs and challenges of the African Diaspora Having lived in both Africa and America in both lack and abundance I have seen that material things have never changed a person s life for eternity Only the Gospel does The legacy that we want to pass on to future African descendants is a life transformation which comes from fully embracing the Gospel of Jesus Christ Emmanuel Ambane Cameroonian minister among International Students Old Dominion University Virginia Beach VA Abeneazer has done it he has enlightened us on how to bear much fruit in the West as Diaspora cross cultural evangelists This is a book that will challenge encourage and move us forward with an agenda that is God centered and Christ exalting and driven by the Holy Spirit Kennedy Mulinge Kenyan Assistant Director South Carolina Christian Chamber of Commerce It is a book that should be read by everyone who profess Jesus Christ as his Savior and Lord since every believer in the Son of God is a Diaspora for he is living in the earthly world longing for a better country the heavenly one For those who are planning to get engaged in cross cultural mission work it is all the more a must read one Blene Moltotal Former Chairwoman of EvaSUE Board     Introduction to Evangelism Delos Miles,1983     NetCasters Craig von Buseck,2010-06-01 Like the industrial age before it the information age has changed our lives in monumental new ways including how a lot of us are learning about spirituality Research suggests fifty million people will rely solely on the Internet indeed the new Roman Road for their faith based experiences in 2010 In NetCasters Craig Von Buseck director of CBN com for the Christian Broadcasting Network discerningly profiles those who are doing the best job of spreading biblical Christianity online He encourages the church at large to follow their lead and fish for souls in these same rich waters from blogs and chat rooms to Facebook pages Twitter accounts and beyond
