Interactions Between Iranian and American Literatures Naghmeh Esmaeilpour, 2024-05-14 Introducing narrative mobility as a new approach in comparative studies of Iran and the US this book reinterprets the politics and aesthetics of relations between the nations through an analysis of Iranian and American authors The book focuses specifically on three authors Simin Daneshvar Shahriar Mandanipour and Don DeLillo who each employ narrative mobility to rethink intercultural negotiation addressing parallel issues in America and Iran from different but complementary perspectives The book analyzes the employment of parallel narrational techniques presenting physically and virtually mobile characters who embody their respective countries as they move from one culture to another The strange affinity between Iran and the US is ultimately revealed by viewing literary works as a contact zone through which the complicated relations and shared history of the two nations can be renegotiated On a more theoretical level the book reflects on the role of literature in particular the novel as a transnational medium as a bridge between nations in a period of globalization With its focus on cross-cultural connections the book will be of interest to anyone studying or researching comparative literature US Iran relations and cultural studies generally
