Everybody's Magazine,1913 Complete Recorded Works in Transcription Sam Morgan's Jazz Band,2012-01-01 Book URL <https://www.areditions.com/rrrrra/a073.html> This edition consists of musical transcriptions of all eight recordings of Sam Morgan's Jazz Band made in New Orleans in 1927 These are among the first recordings of black New Orleans jazz bands made in their home city and as the band consisted of musicians who stayed on in New Orleans after the Great Exodus to Chicago and New York in the early 1920s the recordings preserve a purer form of the collectively improvised ensemble of the earliest black jazz bands It is a loosely integrated purely linear ensemble mass a collective projecting of melodic lines close to the unassimilated heterophonic singing of the Black Primitive Baptist and Sanctified Churches This proto jazz style was being rapidly eclipsed in the 1920s by more flamboyant and technically brilliant forms of New Orleans jazz being recorded by Louis Armstrong Sidney Bechet and Jelly Roll Morton The scores contained herein are the first complete transcriptions of this rare and distinctive music to appear in print

Blueswomen Anna Stong Bourgeois, 1996

While much has been written over the years about male blues singers of the first half of the 20th century little attention has been paid to blueswomen. These women used their songs to proclaim their pain or to speak up and protest unfair conditions and discrimination. Through their songs they expressed a desire for freedom and equality in a time when women were almost universally subjugated. The 37 women profiled here are representative of the many blueswomen who performed in the United States through the end of World War II. Some are well known e.g. Lucille Bogan and Sippie Wallace but many are obscure such as Lil Johnson, Liza Brown and Margaret Whitmire. Biographical profiles are followed by a sampling of the performers lyrics.
