Salmond, 2014-10-27 Of the wave of labor strikes that swept through the South in 1929 the one at the Loray Mill in Gastonia North Carolina is perhaps the best remembered In Gastonia 1929 John Salmond provides the first detailed account of the complex events surrounding the strike at the largest textile mill in the Southeast His compelling narrative unravels the confusing story of the shooting of the town's police chief the trials of the alleged killers the unsolved murder of striker Ella May Wiggins and the strike leaders conviction and subsequent flight to the Soviet Union Describing the intensifying climate of violence in the region Salmond presents the strike within the context of the southern vigilante tradition and as an important chapter in American economic and labor history in the years after World War I He draws particular attention to the crucial role played by women as both supporters and leaders of the strike and he highlights the importance of race and class issues in the unfolding of events

Remembering Africa Dirk Göttsche, 2013 A groundbreaking treatment of the themes of colonialism and Africa in German literary fiction as presented in some fifty novels from the past three decades In the late 1990s in the wake of German unification multiculturalism and globalization a surge of historical novels about German colonialism in Africa and its previously neglected legacies hit the German literary scene This development accelerated by the centenary in 2004 of Germany's colonial war in South West Africa has continued to the present making colonialism an established theme of literary memorialization alongside Germany's dominant memory themes National Socialism and the Holocaust the former GDR and its demise in the Wende and more recently 1968 This is the first comprehensive study of contemporary German literature's intense engagement with German colonialism and with Germany's wider involvement in European colonialism Building on the author's decade of research and publication in the field the book discusses some fifty novels by German Swiss and Austrian writers among them Hans Christoph Buch Alex Capus Christof Hamann Lukas Hartmann Ilona Maria Hilliges Giselher W Hoffmann Dieter Kuhn Hermann Schulz Gerhard Seyfried Thomas von Steinaecker Uwe Timm Ilija Trojanow and Stephan Wackwitz Drawing on international postcolonial theory the German tradition of cross cultural literary studies and on memory studies the book brings the hitherto neglected German case to the international debate in postcolonial literary studies Dirk Göttsche is Professor of German at the University of Nottingham

Distant Kinship Matthias N. Lorenz, 2022-07-28 This study of Joseph Conrad's influential work Heart of Darkness presents for the first time the German language reception of this reference text in the debate on postcolonialism The spectrum ranges from Conrad's contemporaries like Kafka to many canonical authors of the 20th century including Thomas Mann Ernst Jünger Christa Wolf to the most recent names in literature i.e. Christian Kracht and Lukas Bärfuss Beyond the readings of their works the study contributes to the study of cultural transfers as well as to Conrad philology and it expands the theory of intertextuality with parameters that capture the complex factor of power in postcolonial relations

Gregory,2012-12-06 A comprehensive study of German materialism in the second half of the nineteenth century is long overdue Among contemporary historians the mere passing references to Karl Vogt Jacob Moleschott and Ludwig Buchner as materialists and popularizers of science are hardly sufficient for few individuals influenced public opinion in nineteenth century Germany more than these men Buchner for example revealed his awareness of the historical significance of his Kraft und Stoff in comments made in 1872 just seventeen years after its original appearance A philosophical book which has undergone twelve big German editions in the short span of seventeen years which further has been issued in non German countries and languages about fifteen to sixteen times in the same period and whose appearance although its author was entirely unknown up to then has called forth an almost unprecedented storm in the press such a book can be nothing ordinary the world calling it enjoys at present must be justified through its wholly special characteristics or by the merits of its form and content Vogt Moleschott and Buchner explicitly held that their materialism was founded on natural science But other materialists of the nineteenth century also laid claim to the scientific character of their own thought It is likely that Marx and Engels would have permitted their brand of materialism to have been called scientific provided of course that scientific was understood in their dialectical meaning of the term Socialism Engels maintained had become a science with Marx The Cape Law Journal ,1888 Deutsch's Letters Solomon Deutsch,1878 South African Law Journal ,1888 Rules, Orders, &c., Touching the Forms and Manner of Proceeding in Civil and Criminal Cases, Before the Superior and Inferior Courts of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope ... H. Steen,2014-01-03 Literally the last word for Hollywood trivia buffs a celebrity death certificate is also strangely compelling Its matter of fact reportage makes the famous ordinary illuminating previously well lit profiles with the unfiltered light of the everyday A death certificate may also reveal information that stars concealed such as actual birthdates In California death certificates are a matter of public record a real mine of information This follow up to M F Steen s previous two collections 2003 and 2005 reproduces in full 226 death certificates Brief biographical notes are included listing birth and professional name as well as notable film television and entertainment credits The Judicial Practice of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope Casper Hendrik Van Zyl,1893 South African Law Reports ,1913 Modal and Focus Particles in Sign Languages Annika Herrmann,2013-12-12 Bringing together the research fields of sign language linguistics and information structure this book focuses on the realization of modal particles and focus particles in three European sign languages German Sign Language Sign Language of the Netherlands and Irish Sign Language As a cross linguistic investigation based on a systematic methodological approach the study analyzes the results particularly with regard to nonmanual features expressed by articulators such as the body head and face The analyses of the data provide interesting insights into the syntax prosody interface in sign languages and the interaction of syntax and prosody in general Modal and focus particles have not been thoroughly investigated in sign languages This volume presents the first study on this phenomenon and is thus an innovative contribution to the field From a methodological and theoretical perspective it draws on up to date linguistic tools and provides professionally elicited and annotated data The book accounts for the results within existing theoretical models Given its specific focus on nonmanuals the book contributes to recent debates on information structure and the syntax prosody interface and will be of special interest to both sign and spoken language linguists
