

Gateway 1

Requirement to provide a fire statement at the prior planning stage, and when the PD must be appointed following an assessment of competencies. This Gateway has a six-week review period.

Gateway 2

Delivery of building control plans and declaration of competency to regulations. This Gateway has a 12-week review period and is when the 'Golden Thread' should begin to develop.

Gateway 3

Information must be sent back to the Building Safety Regulator as part of the building control approval application process. This can take eight weeks, and the client, PD and PC must declare project compliance with pre-agreed plans and have documentation to prove this.

Between Gateways 2 and 3, the Building Safety Regulator must be given five days' notice until start on site after any further development or design changes have taken place. Robust record-keeping is essential during this stage, helping to evidence compliance and ensure smooth handover.
