The lacunas are the dark eggs) were given to the Monastery of Putna in 1916-17, by villagers from the vicinity. The same applies to the right-hand vertical row of eggs, except the egg in the second row up. This egg is from Bradina in the same area as Putna, and so is the green egg on its left (both 1916). The four 'rose' eggs in the left vertical row are also from the same region, Northern Moldavia, except the blue egg (uppermost) from the Buchanese district. The pair of eggs above the green egg are again Moldavian, that on the right being another two is from Putna, Mierleia in Braşov Province (district of Târnăveni). The unusual design of the red monochrome egg is found on the Prisabic, an instrument used in the Orthodox and Greek Churches for preparing the Evangelium.
