Our Day ,1903

Gideon's Promise Jonathan Rapping,2020-08-18 A criminal defense attorney tugs at both the heartstrings and our consciences as he challenges America s true commitment to justice Stacey Abrams offering a blueprint for how public defense programs should work to end mass incarceration Combining wisdom drawn from over a dozen years as a public defender and cutting edge research in the fields of organizational and cultural psychology Jonathan Rapping proposes a radical cultural shift to a fiercely client based ethos driven by values based recruitment training awakening defenders to their role in upholding an unjust status quo and a renewed pride in the essential role of moral lawyering in a democratic society Public defenders represent over 80% of those who interact with the court system a disproportionate number of whom are poor non white citizens who rely on them to navigate the law on their behalf More often than not even the most well meaning of those defenders are over worked under funded and incentivized to put the interests of judges and politicians above those of their clients in a culture that beats the passion out of talented driven advocates and has led to an embarrassingly low standard of justice for those who depend on the promises of Gideon v Wainwright Through the story of founding Gideon s Promise and anecdotes of his time as a defender and teacher Rapping reanimates the possibility of public defenders serving as a radical bulwark against government oppression and a megaphone to amplify the voices of those they serve
