*(Management plan is designed for an elementary school placement.
Refer to classroom map when needed.)*

I. Room Preparation

A. Bulletin Boards and Walls

- There will be several bulletin boards located in the classroom. One board will contain our current topic of study, which will be decorated by both the students and teacher. There will also be a star student bulletin board. This board is to recognize the student's hard work both intellectually and socially. There will be a morning bulletin board, which will contain the lunch menu, a calendar, student duties, attendance cards, and a weather chart. The last bulletin board, depending on the grade of the classroom, might be a word wall.
- The walls will be decorated to enhance and stimulate the students. Both posters and student work will cover designated areas in the classroom. For example, "The Book Nook" or reading area will contain reading posters. The emergency information, discipline contract, and procedures will be posted on the wall in front of the classroom.

B. Floor Space (refer to the classroom map)

- Student Desks –The student desks will be placed in groups for both management reasons and for the purpose of interacting with peer. I want my students to interact with their peers through hands-on experiments. The desks will also be used for centers.
- Small group area- Small groups will meet at designated times in "The Book Nook" or reading area, at the conference table, and on the carpet (instructional) area.
- Teacher's desk, files and equipment – The teacher's desk will be located in the back right hand corner of the classroom. The desk is placed
