Femmes Fatales and Femmes Attrapées Jans Bernice Wager, 1997 Femmes Fatales Janine Paver, 2005-11-01 She is wily murderous and unquestionably seductive In fact the femme fatale may well be one of American cinema's most complex characters And as surely as she draws men into her orbit the femme fatale of classic film noir cinema has sparked intense interest among film buffs sociologists and feminist academics among others In Femmes Fatales Resistance Power and Postfeminism author Janine Paver dives into this lively debate tracing the history of the femme fatale from pre Code Hollywood to contemporary film By looking at how this iconic character changes over time Paver provides extraordinary insight into the complex social and political dimensions of feminist thought The author incorporates film criticism literary review academic scholarship and ethnographic interviews to give the reader a rich insight into this deeply controversial and intensely interesting on screen persona and how she mirrors the changing views of sex power and gender in America both literary and feminist scholarship by offering the first major study of femme fatales in hardboiled crime fiction Maysaa Jaber shows that the criminal literary figures in the genre open up powerful spaces for imagining female agency in direct opposition to the constraining forces of patriarchy and misogyny The Film Encyclopedia Ephraim Katz, Ronald Dean Nolen, 2013-02-26 Ephraim Katz's The Film Encyclopedia is the most comprehensive single volume encyclopedia on film and is considered the undisputed bible of the film industry Completely revised and updated this seventh edition features more than 7 500 A Z entries on the artistic technical and commercial aspects of moviemaking including Directors producers actors screenwriters and cinematographers Styles genres and schools of filmmaking Motion picture studios and film centers Film related organizations and events Industry jargon and technical terms Inventions inventors and equipment Plus comprehensive listings of academy award winning films And artists top grossing films and much more The Femme Fatale: Images, Histories, Contexts Helen Hanson, Catherine O'Rawe, 2010-07-20 These essays trace the femme fatale across literature visual culture and cinema exploring the ways in which fatal femininity has been imagined in different cultural contexts and historical epochs and moving from mythical women such as Eve Medusa and the Sirens via historical figures such as Mata Hari to fatal women in contemporary cinema The Femme Fatale in American Literature Ghada Suleiman Sasa, 2008 Characters in the literary tradition of American naturalism are usually perceived as passive lacking in will weak and predetermined They are constantly seen as the victims of heredity and environment and their lives are shaped according to these strong forces that operate upon them This interesting book examines the representation of female characters in American naturalism and argues that women in American naturalism are often represented as femmes fatales Since heredity and environment are the determining factors in their lives they are victims who have no control However with characters such as Trina Sieppe in Frank Norris's McTeague Caroline Meeber in Theodore Dreiser's Sister Carrie Edna Pontellier in Kate Chopin's The Awakening and Helga Crane in Nella Larsen's Quicksand these women victims gradually turn themselves into victimizers in order to conquer both heredity and environment They consciously and deliberately use the only power they have that can help them overcome the naturalistic world in which they are entrapped the power of the feminine The book explains who exactly the femme fatale that has been born out of American naturalism is and explores images of women in American realism who precede the femme fatale of American naturalism This study examines characters like Trina Sieppe Caroline Meeber Edna Pontellier and Helga Crane It analyzes these women's backgrounds their demeanors their temperaments their experiences and their settings and explains how and when each woman decides to use her sexuality There is also a brief discussion of other femmes fatales in American naturalism such as Stephen Crane's Maggie A Girl of the Streets Although the perception of women in nineteenth century American literature has always had its place in discussions of literary texts this book is unique in its argument that women in American naturalism are neither weak nor passive but rather are strong and daring women who try diligently to find a means of fighting back This book is an important addition to collections in literature and Women s studies     Close Up ,1927     Gentlemen's Quarterly ,1959     "Nauticus" ,1918

Women on the Civil War Battlefield Richard Hall,2006 Drawing on a wealth of regimental histories newspaper archives and a host of previously unreported accounts Hall shows that women served in more capacities and in greater number perhaps several thousand than has previously been known They served in the infantry cavalry and artillery and as spies scouts saboteurs smugglers and frontline nurses From all walks of life they followed husbands and lovers into battle often in male disguise that remained undiscovered until they were wounded or gave birth and endured the same hardships and dangers as did their male counterparts
