Etruscan Inscriptions Analysed, Translated and Commented Upon (Classic Reprint) Alexander Lindsay Crawford, 2017-11-22 Excerpt from Etruscan Inscriptions Analysed Translated and Commented Upon This volume was written and prepared for the press with a view to private circulation and in the hope that others more competent than myself would take up the subject and work it out My object was not properly speaking to give an accurate interpretation of the Etruscan inscriptions but to shew that the language employed in those inscriptions was an ancient form of German in corroboration of an argument derived from independent sources to prove that the Etruscans were a branch of the Teutonic race My reason for publishing it is this that in a work which I am about to issue on a much more important subject I have employed the ancient German as an instrument of etymological and mythological comparison and analysis in a manner which can only be justified by adduction of proof that the language stands upon a par in point of antiquity and importance with Greek and Latin Zendic and Sanscrit and that its written or rather engraved monuments are centuries older than the Gospels of Ulphilas Such proof is I trust afforded by the contents of the ensuing pages About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
