Fourth Steven

Mortimer Levering, Julia M. Wade

Fourth Steven:

Fourth Estate, 1902 The Fourth Steven Margaret Moseley, 1998 When book rep Honey Huckleberry answers her phone she is not surprised to hear that it is her friend Steven one of them anyway But when he confesses to murder Honey is sure this Steven is no friend of hers And when the other Stevens start dying the fourth Steven is the first suspect in a murderous countdown The Fourth Steven Margaret Moseley, 2019-03-16 The first novel in the refreshingly original delightfully funny mystery series by Margaret Moseley the Edgar Award nominated author of BONITA FAYE There are four Stevens in free spirited 28 year old Honey Huckleberry's life the three she knows and the one she doesn't a stranger who calls her with a cryptic message about an imminent murder Not longer afterwards while she is traveling the gulf coast in her job as a publishing company sales rep one of her Stevens is killed in her home an old Victorian house that she inherited from her parents and where she has always lived This shocking event creates considerable disorder in Honey's very very orderly life So she sets out to solve the murder before she or anyone else becomes the next victim of the fourth Steven As engaging as it is suspenseful an easy and delightful read Honey Huckleberry is a full of humor faults and zany quirks Tulsa World Moseley is a good stylist with a fine sense of atmosphere not only for locales but also for the aura of fear Publishers Weekly
