The West Versus the Rest and The Myth of Western Exceptionalism Imad A. Moosa, 2023-02-28 In this book the author attempts to debunk some myths about Western exceptionalism and to evaluate critically the characteristics that make the West superior to the Rest The author suggests that the West does not represent a homogenous group of countries and that the most common characteristic of the core Western countries is imperialism The author goes on to provide a detailed critique of the proclaimed characteristics of Western countries including democracy human rights judicial independence transparency the rule of law and exclusive contribution to science and technology A critique is presented of the views expressed by Samuel Huntington Francis Fukuyama and Niall Ferguson arguing that they do not recognize the historical fact that civilizations rise and fall It is argued that the Western economic system which is based on neoliberalism has adverse consequences for democracy morality and peace as well as inequality poverty and homelessness Written in a simple but powerful language this book is a must read for those interested in international relations and anyone interested in current affairs

Douglas Stewart,1872 Naming, Identity and Tourism Maoz Azaryahu,Luisa Caiazzo,Richard Coates,2020-01-14 Names weave the texture of our daily lives in ways that are self evident However behind their taken for granted threads they conceal a considerable meaning potential that may turn them into malleable vehicles of human goals and agendas The novelty of this volume lies in the special focus it places on the intersections of naming identity and tourism pointing to how names may play a role in the multifaceted process of identity formation by shaping and promoting tourist attractions be they topographical or metaphorical locations The volume collects original contributions on this emerging field of enquiry that foster an eclectic approach to the study of names The thematic focus and the several approaches adopted here will make the text appealing to postgraduate students and researchers from several disciplinary fields ranging across onomastics linguistics cultural and social geography history archaeology heritage literature postcolonial studies and media studies A Classified Catalogue of Educational Works in Use in the United Kingdom and Its Dependencies in 1887 ... ,1887 Surfing Spaces Jon Anderson,2022-08-04 The act of surfing involves highly skilled humans gliding sliding or otherwise riding waves of energy as they pass through water As this book argues however this act of surfing does not exist in isolation It is defined by the cultures and geographies that synergize with it by the places ideas images and other representations which at once reflect create and commodify this spatial practice This book innovatively explores the spaces of surf and surf riding informed specifically by the perspective of human geography Based on a range of critical turns within the social sciences the book explores the locations relational sensibilities and transformative nature of surfing spaces and examines how the spatial practice has been scripted by dominant surfing cultures The book details how prescriptive b orders of access entitlement and marginalization have been created and how with the advent of new craft media and ideals they are being actively challenged to redefine surfing spaces in the twenty first century The English Catalogue of Books ,1882 Geographic Information Science Thomas J. possibilities for charting the ineffable spaces of the divine which lie somehow beyond geography In setting itself that task this book pushes the boundaries of geographies of religion to bring into direct focus questions of spirituality By seeing religion through the lens of practice rather than as a set of beliefs geographies of religion can be interpreted much more widely bringing a whole range of other spiritual practices and spaces to light The book is split into three sections each contextualised with an editors introduction to explore the spaces of spiritual practice the spiritual production of space and spiritual transformations This book intends to open to up new questions and approaches through the theme of spirituality pushing the boundaries on current topics and introducing innovative new ideas including esoteric or radical spiritual practices This landmark book not only captures a significant moment in geographies of spirituality but acts as a catalyst for future work
