women in Kenny's life who saved him his devoted mother and the wife he'd met during his school days Kenny has found the strength to fight back from the brink and defeat the demons of drink and gambling For the first time he reveals the story of a man at the peak of professional achievement yet dangerously close to losing it all Kenny Sansom considers himself a lucky man But he also knows he's pushed that luck and is fortunate to have survived As a footballer he soared to great heights but as an individual he also sank to life-threatening lows The fans in the Highbury terraces may have sung his name but no one ever really knew the whole truth about the football icon
