Ironside, 2014-06-10 In taking up the study of any one of the Gospels it is always well to look at it in relation to the other three We have four Gospels in the New Testament and the questions are often asked Why are there four and Why do they differ one from the others as they do and Would it not have been just as easy to have given us one continuous biography of Christ rather than four accounts all written by different writers This was not God's desire By giving us four different records written by four different men we have a stronger foundation for our faith in the stories of the birth life death and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ We are told in Matthew 18:16 In the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established God has given us this testimony not only from three but four witnesses each one written by the guidance of the Holy Spirit The Missing Link Magazine, Or, Bible Work at Home and Abroad, The Bible Henry Tatlock, 1927 *Holiness as demanded and provided by the Gospel.
