Night had fallen upon a wild Florida forest and all was still save for the hooting of a distant owl and the occasional plaintive call of a whip poor will In a little clearing by the side of a faint bridle path a huge fire of fat pine knots roared and crackled lighting up the small cleared space and throwing its flickering rays in amongst the dark gloomy pines At the edge of the clearing two wiry little Florida ponies tethered with rawhide ropes browsed upon the short dry wire grass Nearer to the fire lay a neatly done up pack and beside it a high pommeled Mexican saddle while the firelight gleamed on the polished barrels of a fine shotgun and rifle leaning against the pack Close to the blaze a heap of glowing coals had been raked a little to one side and upon them rested a coffee pot and large frying pan from which stole forth appetizing odors of steaming coffee and frying bacon The man bending over the coals was heavily bearded and past middle age but his broad shoulders and huge frame still gave evidence of great strength and endurance There was about him an air of anxious expectancy and from time to time he rose from his crouching position and with hand to ear listened intently I sort o wonder if they ll all fail me he muttered as he removed the frying pan from the coals but set it near enough to keep the contents hot As if in answer to his soliloquy there rose above the crackling of the fire the muffled distant thud of galloping hoofs A few moments later a well built sturdy lad astride a mettlesome pony dashed into the circle of firelight Throwing the reins over the pony s head the rider leaped from the saddle and with a rush had the elderly man clasped in his arms in an affectionate hug Captain Westfield he shouted in boyish delight Charley West cried the man glad to see you lad glad to see you My you have grown How are you boy Fine Captain couldn t be better But wait till I tend to my pony and we will have a good long powwow With sure swift movements the newcomer removed saddle pack and guns and staked his pony out near the others This done he returned to the fire What s in the wind he began firing in the questions with the speed of a Maxim Something worth while judging from that mysterious letter of yours What is the scheme Why this secret meeting in the forest instead of in town Why but the man

he called captain interrupted him with a chuckle Hold a minute lad Just bowse your jib for a bit You must be hungry boy Starved as a wolf I could even eat a razorback if I didn t have to see it before it was cooked The captain forked out a quantity of crisp bacon upon a tin plate and filled a big granite cup with fragrant coffee for Charlie West and from his saddle bags brought out a bag of hardtack Helping himself also both fell to with a will What were you doin when you got my letter Charley asked the captain between mouthfuls Nothing just kicking myself and brooding away in the city The lad s bright clear eyes looked frankly into the captain s as he continued
