Natural Factors in American Civilization John Calvin Kimball, 1893 The Nation, 1922 Charity and Poverty in Advanced Welfare States Cameron Parsell, Andrew Clarke, Francisco Perales, 2021-09-20 This book conceptualises the role of charity to people who are poor in wealthy countries and outlines a set of practical and conceptual ideas for how it could be reimagined Despite professionalised welfare states and strong economies in many advanced industrialised nations charity continues to play a major role in the lives of people who are poor Extending what we know about how neoliberalism drives a decayed welfare state that outsources welfare provisioning to charities and community initiatives this book asks how can we understand and conceptualise society s willingness to engage in charitable acts towards the poor and how can charity be reimagined to contribute to justice in an unjust society Through interrogating multiple data sources including government datasets survey datasets media analyses and ethnographic data this book shows that charity is not well suited to addressing the material dimension of poverty It argues the need for a revised model of charity with the capacity to contribute to social solidarity that bridges social divisions and is inclusive of the poor Presenting a model for reimagining charity which enables reciprocity and active contributions from recipients and providers this book shows how power imbalances flowing from the unidirectional provision of charity can be reduced allowing opportunities for reciprocal care that foster both well being and solidarity This book will be of interest to all scholars and students of social policy public policy social welfare sociology and social work

How to Survive Travelling in Australia Rainer Krauhs,2014-04-11 This non fiction book contains hard earned advice on how to travel Australia and return home safe healthy and above all alive Each advice is illustrated with stories during which I learned them They re all from my own travels conducted back when I was still a naive young person The advices are grouped and sorted by source and extent of the hazard The biggest risk gets explained first You Followed by Other people then companies and organizations Finally and only then australian cliché hazards animals weather geography natural disasters And since you ll be travelling transportation alone with others during hikes or group travel For example I explain how to properly apply sunscreen in short every other hour nighttime excluded and tell about how I got a natural tan while it rained I explain to outsiders why Vegemite is good for you and a funny way to spot the non initiated Don t drive a car at night I did and I m listing everything I barely missed the least of that were animals You might have been told the Police was there to protect and to serve but they don t always live up to that I witnessed them arresting those needing help Don t hitchhike I tried that unsuccessfully for hours even though I were in busy places and I m telling you about that so you won t get lost in remote Australia or meet a serial killer Animals aren t accustomed to meeting humans since the country is so spacious so they just treat people like terrain and run across them Road Trains aren t long trucks but deadly avalanches unless one makes a step to the side And I explain the importance of carrying sufficient water because the Outback isn t just blue skies and wide open space but the largest sauna in the world In short Although Australia seems to be like home it is not This misapprehension can cost you your life Finally in order not completely deter the reader from traveling I m recounting several good experiences For example about the drunken gargantuan Aborigines who found my tiny elderly mother who got lost at night when visiting and how they carefully guided her like a child And about three tourists standing alone at night in the middle of the desert with a fresh glass of champagne under the stars For readers impatient or just browsing I here summarize advice I deem most important Take preventive measures What is unsafe to do at home is unsafe away from home Let someone you trust know where you re going so they can alert someone should you not arrive as planned Tell them who to call and then contact them when you re back in safety Read warning signs and follow their advice Someone spent money and effort to put them there to save you Recognize places and situations where no warning sign has been put up but should have been Drink plenty of water and bring sufficient supplies Wear sunscreen Bring a jumper winning documentary seen on ABC TV In 2019 the ABC aired an explosive investigative documentary entitled How to Sell a Massacre The result of an audacious three year infiltration of the US National Rifle Association the documentary revealed how One Nation solicited donations of up to 20 million from the NRA promising in return to use the balance of power to soften gun laws in Australia Masterminded by veteran Australian journalist Peter Charley the elaborate sting saw Australian businessman Rodger Muller go undercover as the head of a fake Australian pro gun advocacy group But the tactics used by Charley to expose both One Nation and the NRA drew criticism from some Now in his book How to Sell a Massacre Peter Charley gives an inside account of the sting drawing on more than 40 years reporting to explore how journalism has changed and to make sense of why in a post truth environment he felt it necessary to set a trap to catch the truth Charley draws on previously unreleased transcripts of covertly recorded meetings between the NRA and One Nation to give graphic details of the undercover operation At the same time he reflects on a long and distinguished career and how the role and methods of journalism have had to change and adapt in a post truth world Set during the period of Donald Trump s rise to power and the US s worst mass shootings including Las Vegas and Orlando How to Sell a Massacre reads like a pacey spy thriller with a deadly truth at its heart that an Australian political party would seek foreign money in a bid to seize power and destroy the gun laws that keep Australians safe
