Reading Keats's Poetry Merve Günday,2024-07-04 This book claims that Keats s poetry is a reaction against the discourse of modernity which traumatized the human subject by creating a divide between human and nature subject and object It argues that by transcending this divide and acknowledging the agency of both subject and object Keats makes an ideological statement and offers a new site of existence or relationality to readers This site also implies a response to the accusations that the Romantics were not interested in the realities of their time What Keats does is to give an aestheticized response to the hardcore facts of his time Departing from previous studies due to its emphasis on subjectivity and relationality the book discusses Keats with regard to post non anthropocentric alternative subject positions and subject object relations in his Ode to a Nightingale In drear nighted December Isabella or The Pot of Basil Lamia La Belle Dame sans Mercy and Ode on a Grecian Urn Drawing on Lacanian and Braidottian epistemologies in its discussion of the intricacy between the imaginary and the symbolic the irruption of the psychotic into the symbolic and the agency of the object on the subject in Keats s poetry the book suggests that the inner dynamics of both the subject and the object acquire agency which shatters Oneness and totality assumed in the Cartesian self

Herbrechter,2024-11-18 This volume collects essays written over the last decade by one of the founders and leading figures of the theoretical movement of critical posthumanism The readings of literary texts gathered here from Shakespeare Keats Camus Vittorini Kundera Haushofer Atwood Eagleman Crace and DeLillo focus on posthumanist moments in which questions of postanthropocentrism and the nonhuman become prominent are negotiated and ultimately foreclosed They show how a deconstructively minded way of reading humanistically motivated texts can help making these texts relevant for our so called posthuman times In doing so these critical posthumanist readings demonstrate that literature remains one of the privileged cultural institutions and practices from which solidarities both with and between the human and nonhuman can be formed and negotiated
