Postliterary America Maria Damon, 2011-04

In this capacious and challenging book Maria Damon surveys the poetry and culture of the United States in two distinct but inextricably linked periods. In part 1 Identity K not e s she considers the America of the 1950s and early 1960s when contentious and troubled alliances took shape between different marginalized communities and their respective but overlapping bohemias Jews African Americans the Beats and gays and lesbians. Damon then turns to more contemporary issues and broader topics of poetics in part 2 s Poetics for a Postliterary America which goes on to paint a wider picture dwelling less on close readings of individual poems and more on asking questions about the nature of poetry itself and its role in community formation and individual survival Discussions of counterperformance kinetics the Nuyorican Latino identity and electronic poetics enliven this section

Revel with a Cause Stephen E. Kercher, 2010-06-15 We live in a time much like the postwar era A time of arch political conservatism and vast social conformity A time in which our nation's leaders question and challenge the patriotism of those who oppose their policies But before there was Jon Stewart Al Franken or Bill Maher there were Mort Sahl Stan Freberg and Lenny Bruce liberal satirists who through their wry and scabrous comedic routines waged war against the political ironies contradictions and hypocrisies of their times Revel with a Cause is their story Stephen Kercher here provides the first comprehensive look at the satiric humor that flourished in the United States during the 1950s and early 1960s Focusing on an impressive range of comedy not just standup comedians of the day but also satirical publications like MAD magazine improvisational theater groups such as Second City the motion picture Dr Strangelove and TV shows like That Was the Week That Was Kercher reminds us that the postwar era saw varieties of comic expression that were more challenging and nonconformist than we commonly remember His history of these comedic luminaries shows that for a sizeable audience of educated middle class Americans who shared such liberal views the period's satire was a crucial mode of cultural dissent For such individuals satire was a vehicle through which concerns over the suppression of civil liberties Cold War foreign policies blind social conformity and our heated racial crisis could be productively addressed A vibrant and probing look at some of the most influential comedy of mid twentieth century America Revel with a Cause belongs on the short list of essential books for anyone interested in the relationship between American politics and popular culture

Feast of Excess George Cotkin, 2016 Feast of Excess is an engaging and accessible portrait of The New Sensibility as it was named by Susan Sontag in 1965 The New Sensibility sought to push culture in extreme directions either towards stark minimalism or gaudy maximalism Through vignette profiles of prominent figures John Cage Patricia Highsmith Allen Ginsberg Andy Warhol Anne Sexton John Coltrane Bob Dylan Erica Jong and Thomas Pynchon to name a few George Cotkin presents their bold headline grabbing performances and places them within the historical moment
