Essential Mary Midgley:

The Essential Mary Midgley International Society for Science and Religion, 2005 The Essential Mary Midgley Mary Midgley, David Midgley, 2025-12 This is a must have anthology incorporating carefully selected excerpts from her bestselling books this 2nd edition includes work published in the last 20 years Expertly edited and introduced by David Midgley it also includes a new Foreword by Rachael Wiseman The Essential Mary Midgley David Midgley, 2004-08-02 This anthology includes carefully chosen selections from her best selling books including Wickedness Beast and Man Science and Poetry and The Myths We Live By An unrivalled introduction to a great philosopher and includes a The Earth Is Our Home Nelson Rivera, 2016-11-14 This book demonstrates that Mary Midgley's philosophy of evolution points the way towards considering the earth as our only true home since we are products of this planet and its evolving and complex life along with every other organism From the knowledge of ourselves as knowing animals with a biological as well as a cultural history Midgley proposes the elaboration of an evolutionary epistemology that situates us firmly on the earth together with other creatures while at the same time helping us to build knowledge of the world from the complexity of the human experience I like to call this approach by a known theological analogy a view from below that is from the underside of the world from the realms of nature and history Such an approach does not begin by assuming conceptions of design or order in nature a view that we term from above although it does not rule out the possibility of teleological or metaphysical constructions of reality in the long run This down to earth approach I consider essential for any philosophy or theology that wants to take evolutionary theory seriously while committed to a proper and non dismissive assessment of religious views Creation-Crisis Preaching Leah D. Schade, 2015-09-01 How can we proclaim justice for God's Creation in the face of global warming How does fracking fit with the earth and its fullness are the Lord's Creation Crisis Preaching works with the premise that all of Creation including humankind needs to hear the Good News of Jesus resurrection in this age in which humanity is crucifying Creation Informed by years of experience as an environmental activist and minister Leah Schade equips preachers to interpret the Bible through a green lens become rooted in environmental theology and learn how to understand their preaching context in terms of the particular political cultural and biotic setting of their congregation Creation Crisis Preaching provides both theoretical grounding and practical tips for preachers to create environmental sermons that are relevant courageous creative pastoral and inspiring Imaginary Games Chris Bateman, 2011-11-16 Can games be art When film critic Roger Ebert claimed in 2010 that videogames could never be art it was seen as a snub by many gamers But from the perspective of philosophy of art this question was topsy turvey since according to one of the most influential theories of representation all art is a game Kendall Walton's prop theory explains how we interact with paintings novels movies and other artworks in terms of imaginary games like a child's game of make believe wherein the artwork acts as a prop prescribing specific imaginings and in this view there can be no question that games are indeed a strange and wonderful form of art In Imaginary

Games game designer and philosopher Chris Bateman expands Walton's prop theory to videogames board games collectible card games like Pok mon and Magic the Gathering and tabletop role playing games like Dungeons Dragons The book explores the many different fictional worlds that influence the modern world the ethics of games and the curious role the imagination plays in everything from religion to science and mathematics Reimagining Ethics Matteo

Andreozzi,2025-08-24 Several environmental problems are currently seriously undermining the traditional belief that the moral community should be restricted to human beings only New scientific theories especially in the fields of biology ethology and ecology together with recent scientific discoveries demonstrating how human activities are jeopardizing ecosystem services urge for a paradigmatic change in our moral convictions Environmental ethics has taken up the challenge and opened an extremely urgent and inspiring call for philosophical research This is the call for extending the moral community to non human and non paradigmatic entities regarding them as moral patients The main aim of this book is to analyze the possibility and the legitimacy of a non anthropocentric environmental ethic In pursuing this aim I primarily demonstrate the possibility and need to extend the status of moral patient beyond the ideal paradigmatic human being I also provide an original categorization of several theoretical projects that have been proposed in the last few decades Secondly this book comprises a constructive critique of the most significant moral theories debated in the field and outlines a personal theoretical proposal for a new environmental ethic My claim is that the refusal of ethical and ontological supremacy of human beings is not only necessary but also sufficient to set the foundation for a formally and materially valid ethical system Even without abandoning the most accepted forms of moral epistemology it is nonetheless possible to admit the need to respect different kinds of non human and non paradigmatic moral patients The Myths We Live by Mary Midgley,2004

The Myths We Live By is a powerful clearly written book that shows us what goes wrong when we try to apply the metaphors of science to the problems of our lives Essential reading for anyone concerned about how to understand the world today

questions about disciplinarity itself while hoping to inspire further work beyond the human in future interdisciplinary scholarship Key Features10 provocative case studies focused on representations and discourses of animals and animality in twentieth and twenty first century literature art and film in EnglishNew work from both internationally renowned and emerging figures in the burgeoning fields of animality studies human animal studies and posthumanism suggesting innovative and significant new directions to exploreBroad introduction to the kinds of questions scholars in the humanities have considered in relation to animals and animality

The Psychology of Prejudice Lynne M.
