The Poetry Home Repair Manual Ted Kooser, 2007-03-01 Recently appointed as the new U S Poet Laureate Ted Kooser has been writing and publishing poetry for more than forty years In the pages of The Poetry Home Repair Manual Kooser brings those decades of experience to bear Here are tools and insights the instructions and warnings against instructions that poets aspiring or practicing can use to hone their craft perhaps into art Using examples from his own rich literary oeuvre and from the work of a number of successful contemporary poets the author schools us in the critical relationship between poet and reader which is fundamental to what Kooser believes is poetry's ultimate purpose to reach other people and touch their hearts Much more than a guidebook to writing and revising poems this manual has all the comforts and merits of a long and enlightening conversation with a wise and patient old friend a friend who is willing to share everything he's learned about the art he's spent a lifetime learning to execute so well

The Fragment Camelia Elias, 2004 This monograph is an interdisciplinary study of the concept of fragment in literature and in critical and literary theory It discusses the fragment's performativity and function within a historical perspective stretching from Heraclitus via the German Romantics and European writers of the Modernist period to American postmodern manifestations of the fragment This is the first history of the fragment to appear in English and it is also the first attempt at producing a consistent taxonomy of literary and critical fragments The fragments are categorised according to function not author intention and the study addresses a number of questions What constitutes the fragment when the fragment can only be defined a posteriori Does the fragment begin on its own or is it begun by others writers and critics Does it acquire a name of its own or is it labelled by others All these questions revolve around issues of agency and they are best discussed in terms of performativity which means seeing fragments as acts acts of literature acts of reading acts of writing The book demonstrates how a poetics of the fragment as a performative genre can be created situating the fragment both as literature and as a phenomenon within postmodern criticism against the background of philosophy art history and theology
