

UNIT 1 HOW DO WE LOOK AT TEXTS?

In this unit, you will

- make judgements about the writers of texts
- consider purpose and audience
- examine how content, structure and language vary.

Whether texts are fiction (made up) or non-fiction (true), written to inform or to entertain, they have some common features. They all have

- their purpose and target audience
- content
- structure
- their own use of language.

FOCUS: THE WRITER

Texts have form and purpose; for example:

Form	Purpose
a leaflet	eg, encouraging children to brush their teeth regularly
an article	eg, asking readers to support a particular point of view
a poem	eg, describing a life experience or situation

To understand a text's purpose, we imagine who has written it, and why. There are usually clues in the text which give us glimpses of what the writer is like.
