Tears of Rage John Walsh, 2009-12-01 As the host of the immensely popular America's Most Wanted John Walsh has been instrumental in the capture of nearly four hundred and fifty of this country's most dangerous fugitives However few know the full story of the personal tragedy behind his public crusade the 1981 abduction and murder of his six year old son Adam Here for the first time Walsh his wife Rev and their closest friends tell the wrenching tale of Adam's death and the infuriating conspiracy of events that have kept America's No 1 crime fighter from obtaining justice and closure for himself and his family I've never really spoken about these things to anyone before but I want to talk about Adam before he died I want people to know just exactly how horrible it is to lose your child how painful it is But I also want to talk about how people can help you and how you can help yourself About how to come to terms with life when you think you're dying of a broken heart John Walsh I remember thinking our son's been murdered and now we've got to be the ones to do something about it It was a sad thing for this country that the fight had to be led by two broken down parents of a murdered child But we had to because no one else was going to do it Rev Walsh Nisei Memories Paul Howard Takemoto, 2012-03-01 Outstanding Title University Press Books Selected for Public and Secondary School Libraries 2007 Edition Nisei Memories is an extraordinarily moving account of two second generation Japanese Americans who were demonized as threats to national security during World War II Based on Paul Takemoto's interviews with his parents in which they finally divulge their past Nisei Memories follows their lives before during and after the war his father serving his country his mother imprisoned by it At the start of the war twenty one year old Kaname Ken Takemoto was a sophomore at the University of Hawaii Although classified as an enemy alien he served in the army first as a Varsity Victory Volunteer and then as a combat medic with the 100th Battalion 442nd Regimental Combat Team in Italy Fifteen year old Alice Setsuko Imamoto was attending high school in California when the war began Soon after her father and mother were both imprisoned She and her three sisters were sent to an assembly center in Santa Anita and eventually the family was reunited at a relocation camp in Jerome Arkansas She was finally released to attend Oberlin College on a music scholarship Like so many others Ken and Alice had never spoken of their experiences which as their son explains loomed as backdrops to our lives but until now were never discussed While his father had relived his wartime experiences over and over in his mind his mother blocked many of hers from memory Takemoto fills in some of the gaps with information gleaned from correspondence and documents Of unusual power and appeal the interviews lead readers through the half century of uncertainty and trauma endured by the family before it was able to confront issues central to its existence They tell a story of perseverance and forgiveness and ultimately pride

The Game of Their Lives Dave Klein,2008-10-15 On December 28 1958 the New York Giants played the Baltimore Colts at Yankee Stadium for the NFL Championship the first ever NFL game to go into sudden death overtime The game was televised nationally a rarity in 1958 and featured players and coaches whose names are among the most well known in the legend and lore of football Frank Gifford Alan Ameche Sam Huff Andy Robustelli Tom Landry Johnny Unitas Rosie Grier and Alex Webster For the first edition of the book Klein formed chapters around interviews with twelve prominent players five of whom have since died The 50th anniversary edition contains new interviews with players left out of the first edition Frank Gifford Art Donovan and Ray Perkins As well as a where are they now update on all the players mentioned
