

Global Insights on Navigating Today's Complex Crisis

New in its second edition, the handbook of International Crisis and Risk Communication Research offers a timely and comprehensive evaluation of the methods, challenges, and innovations in managing present-day global crises and risks. Bringing together expert insights from across the fields of communication, public relations, and social sciences, this interdisciplinary volume examines crisis and risk communication through an international lens. Each chapter presents unique cultural, theoretical, and methodological perspectives for navigating risk, mitigating crisis, and fostering resilience.

Broad covering theoretical issues such as public health emergencies, climate-induced disasters, and political uprisings, the handbook emphasizes the role of communication in crisis awareness, recovery, and renewal. Contributions by leading scholars and practitioners investigate vital issues such as the impact of socialization, digital technologies, and media dynamics in shaping public perception and policy response. The revised and expanded edition also reflects recent global threats, including climate change, the COVID-19 pandemic, the war in Ukraine, and other cross-border crises.

Equipping readers with the knowledge and frameworks necessary to navigate an increasingly complex and interconnected world, the Handbook of International Crisis and Risk Communication Research is perfect for advanced graduate courses and PhD programs in crisis and risk communication, as well as crisis managers, public relations consultants, communication officers, and scholars in risk management and communication.

Andreas Schwarz is Senior Professor in Risk and Crisis Communication at Technische Universität Darmstadt, Germany, and Co-Director of the International Research Group on Crisis Communication. He served as the founding Chair of the Crisis Communication Section of ICCRA. Schwarz has led multiple studies on crisis communication, including COVID-19 risk communication, and has consulted for government and corporate organizations.

Matthew W. Seeger is Distinguished University Professor of Communication and co-director of the Center for Emerging and Infectious Diseases at Wayne State University. A prominent researcher in crisis and risk communication, Seeger has published nine books, including Survivors of Crisis: Seeking a Sense of Hope and Renewal and Theorizing Crisis Communication. He has worked extensively with the UN and WHO on crisis response and communication efforts.

Sora Kim is Professor at the Chinese University of Hong Kong, where she directs the Corporate Communication program and the CRCA & Sustainability Hub. An expert in CSR and crisis communication, she has over 100 publications in leading communication and business journals. Her work explores sustainability, risk, and crisis communication across corporate and societal contexts.
