

Features of a Fact File

A fact file is a piece of non-fiction writing. It gives the reader information about a particular subject.

Title

- This tells the reader what the fact file is about.

Introduction

This introduces the topic to the reader. It should encourage them to read on.

Fact files might also include:

- pictures or photos with captions that explain what is happening in them.
- diagrams with labels that give the reader further information.

Paragraphs

Information about the topic is written in paragraphs. A paragraph is a group of sentences that are written about the same idea. Paragraphs help to organise information. They are often separated by a line between them or put in different boxes on the fact file.

Sub-headings

These are titles throughout the text that tell you what each paragraph or section is about. They are usually bold or bigger than the rest of the writing.
