Eskimo Realities Edmund Carpenter, Eberhard Otto, Fritz Spiess, Jørgen Meldgaard, 2008 Eskimo Realities Edmund Carpenter, 1974 Eskimo Realities [by] Edmund Carpenter Edmund Snow Carpenter, Eberhard Otto, Fritz Spiess, Jørgen Meldgaard, 1973 Eskimo Realities Edmund Carpenter, 1973 Canadian Inuit art against the context of their life in the Arctic Félix Guattari Gary Genosko, 2009-04-20 This is an introduction to the thought of the radical French thinker Félix Guattari. Guattari's main works were published in the 1970s and 1980s. His background was in psychoanalysis; he was trained by Lacan and he practised as a psychoanalyst for much of his life. He developed a distinctive psychoanalytic method informed always by his revolutionary politics. Guattari was actively involved in numerous political movements from Trotskyism to Autonomism, tackling ecological and sexual politics along the way. A true believer in collectivity, much of his work was written in collaboration, most famously with Gilles Deleuze. This is also an introduction to key concepts such as schizoanalysis, transversality, a signifying semiotics, and various kinds of machine. The Explorations of Edmund Snow Carpenter Richard Cavell, 2024-10-15 Edmund Snow Carpenter 1922-2011 shaped by an early encounter with Marshall McLuhan was a renegade anthropologist who would plumb the connection between anthropology and media studies over a thoroughly unconventional career. As co-conspirators in the founding of the legendary journal Explorations 1953-59, Carpenter and McLuhan established the groundwork for media studies. After ten years teaching anthropology at the University of Toronto, hosting radio and television shows on the CBC and doing major research in the Arctic, Carpenter left Toronto and became an itinerant anthropologist. He took up a position in Papua New Guinea where he countered anthropological practice by handing his camera to the Papuans. Carpenter's marriage to the artist and heiress Adelaide de Menil made him a truly independent scholar. With the support of the Rock Foundation, founded by de Menil, he collected ethnographical art, curated exhibitions, and edited the materials for a twelve-volume study of social symbolism based on the massive archives created by Carl Schuster. Richard Cavell shows Carpenter as austere, generous, and unpredictable, also unwavering in working throughout his career within the framework established by Explorations. The anthropological impetus for media studies has largely been forgotten. This study restores that memory, tracing Carpenter's work in media and in anthropology over a lifetime of cultural achievements and intellectual convolutions. The Reinvention of Social Practices Gary Genosko, 2018-03-27 The Reinvention of Social Practices shows the relevance of Félix Guattari's thought for the analysis of contemporary social and cultural encounters ranging across an alternative skateboard school, informatic subjugations, urban ecological dilemmas, drug subcultures, and countercultures. Gary Genosko, the leading English interpreter of Guattari, expands upon Guattari's conception of schizoanalysis as a transformative process of critical self-modelling that leads to the creation of new maps of existence, highlighting an interpretive dream pragmatics, a peripatetic psychiatric practice, a rethinking of epilepsy, and a post-media vision of digital interfaces beyond the keyboard. The folds of Guattari's collaborations with Gilles Deleuze and Antonio Negri are explored and his philosophical friendship with Franco Bifo Berardi is brought into focus In the shadow of the sun ,1993-01-01 This volume makes available in English most of the essays written to accompany the Canadian Museum of Civilization s exhibition of the same name Not included are the essays by Gisela Hoffman Bernadette Driscoll and Elizabeth McLuhan and the exhibition catalogue section which appeared in the original German publication This book provides an overview of the evolution of contemporary Native Canadian art Regional styles as well as individual artistic styles are discussed and the various subjects themes and techniques reflected in the works are examined Published in English An Annotated Bibliography of Inuit Art Richard C. Crandall,Susan M.

Crandall,2015-07-25 Archaeological digs have turned up sculptures in Inuit lands that are thousands of years old but Inuit art as it is known today only dates back to the beginning of the 1900s Early art was traditionally produced from soft materials such as whalebone and tools and objects were also fashioned out of stone bone and ivory because these materials were readily available The Inuit people are known not just for their sculpture but for their graphic art as well the most prominent forms being lithographs and stonecuts This work affords easy access to information to those interested in any type of Inuit art There are annotated entries on over 3 761 articles books catalogues government documents and other publications
