infrastructure A functioning infrastructure is vital for the development of an economy in particular for its international trade As trade is a key component in China s economic success formula demand for an efficient infrastructure is high Air transportation has become one of the most effective tools to explore and serve world markets In today s highly competitive business world just in time delivery and good customer service are absolutely crucial The overall trend towards fast reliable delivery and the transformation of China s economy along with the value chain of production have boosted demand for air transportation Due to these developments the air cargo market which is still at low levels particularly in domestic transportation is one of the fastest growing markets in China The regional focus of this study is on the economic powerhouse of China the Pearl River Delta PRD located in the southern province of Guangdong Everyone who knows the highly industrialised landscape of the PRD would probably agree that the region s nickname factory of the world is more than appropriate The PRD has the highest per capita output in China and generates about one third of national exports The Greater Pearl River Delta GPRD consists of the PRD and the Special Administrative Zones Hong Kong and Macao In many respects it is one of the most interesting economic entities of the world Economy and infrastructure are integrated on a very high level The GPRD features many extremes its strong economic power its rapid growth that has been the highest in China for many years its population density and last but not least its aviation landscape Within radial distance of about 100 km five international airports are at service creating the highest airport density in the world Three of these airports are among China s top five airports The clear leader among them is Hong Kong International Airport HKIA which has established itself as a major hub in Asia and has been the airport with the highest international air cargo throughput of the world for many years Its dominant Time ,1923 Manufacturers' News ,1927 From Comparison to World Literature Longxi Zhang,2014-11-19 The study of world literature is on the rise Until recently the term world literature was a misnomer in comparative literature scholarship which typically focused on Western literature in European languages In an increasingly globalized era this is beginning to change In this collection of essays Zhang Longxi discusses how we can transcend Eurocentrism or any other ethnocentrism and revisit the concept of world literature from a truly global perspective Zhang considers literary works and critical insights from Chinese and other non Western traditions drawing on scholarship from a wide range of disciplines in the humanities and integrating a variety of approaches and perspectives from both East and West The rise of world literature emerges as an exciting new approach to literary studies as Zhang argues for the validity of cross cultural understanding particularly from the perspective of East West comparative studies The British Trade Journal ,1891 Dispute Settlement Reports 2013: Volume 3, Pages 657-1038 World Trade Organization,2015-04-30 The Dispute Settlement Reports of the World Trade Organization WTO include Panel and Appellate Body reports as well as arbitration awards in disputes concerning the rights and obligations of WTO members under the provisions of the Marrakesh Agreement Establishing the World Trade Organization These are the WTO authorized and paginated reports in English An essential
