Guide To Living Standards Measurement Study Surveys And Their Data Sets:

A Guide to Living Standards Measurement Study Surveys and Their Data Sets Margaret E. Grosh, Paul Glewwe, 1995-01-01 World Bank Discussion Paper No 302 Presents an alternative way of financing development in Sub Saharan Africa in order to address the shortcomings of past investment lending This study discusses sector investment programs SIPs as an alternative way of financing development in Sub Saharan Africa in order to address the shortcomings of past investment lending in the region The report examines the nature and features of SIPs by drawing on the limited experience with such operations in a number of countries to date including Bangladesh Mozambique Pakistan Tanzania and Zambia A SIP is distinguished by its comprehensive sector coverage by close coordination among all parties including stakeholders and donors and by the requirement that it be formulated under local ownership and management Model Living Standards Measurement Study Survey Questionnaire for the Countries of the Former Soviet Union Raylynn Oliver, 1997-01-01 Living Standards Measurement Survey Working Paper No 130 This document presents a set of Living Standards Measurement Study LSMS questionnaires that have been developed for use in the Russian speaking countries of the former Soviet Union The questionnaires are available in English and Russian as well as in an electronic format The document describes in detail how to modify the questionnaires for use in any specific country The author guides the questionnaire writer through the modification process illustrating the important aspects of LSMS surveys the translation and field testing procedures and a section by section description of the types of modification that are likely to be required to suit particular goals and circumstances Also available in Russian ISBN 0 8213 3935 4 Stock No 13935 Poverty Comparisons and Household Survey Design Steven Howes, Jean Olson Lanjouw, 1997-01-01 World Bank Discussion Paper No 356 The World Bank has become the world's largest lender in the health nutrition and population HNP sectors requiring the institution to seek ever greater evidence that its work is effective on the ground This paper reviews the literature on the causes of observed changes in health and fertility levels on the evaluation of policies and on programs designed to accelerate these changes It presents a framework that delineates the relationships between Bank activities in the HNP sectors the characteristics of a health care system household behavior and changes in health outcomes The paper also describes a strategy for assessing the development effectiveness of the Bank's work in these sectors The underlying thesis is that changes in health policy and improved outcomes depend on the demand for health services and on institutional incentives that drive health care system performance Are You Being Served? Samia Amin, Jishnu Das, Markus Goldstein, 2007-12-28 This publication presents tools and techniques for measuring service delivery in health and education and people's experiences from the field in deploying these methods It begins by providing an introduction to the different methodological tools available for evaluating the performance of the health and education sectors Country specific experiences are then explored to highlight lessons on the challenges advantages and disadvantages of using different techniques to measure quality in a variety of different contexts and of using the resulting data to affect change This book is a valuable resource for those who seek to enhance capacity for the effective measurement of service delivery in order to improve accountability and governance and enhance the quality of service delivery in developing countries A Manual for Planning and Implementing the Living Standards Measurement Study Survey Margaret E. Grosh, Juan Muñoz, 1996 This manual explains the planning process technical procedures and standards used in Living Standard Measurement Study LSMS household surveys including what these procedures entail why they are used and how they can be implemented It provides a factual description of different procedures and standards as well as their purpose and an explanation of their distinctions The report offers explicit instructions along with examples of ways LSMS survey procedures have been implemented in different countries Although the lessons presented here are derived from LSMS surveys many of them are applicable to surveys in general and especially to those that are complex or especially concerned with quality control Topics covered in this manual include technical aspects of questionnaire formatting and testing methods of implementing sample design and fieldwork and data management procedures that have been successful The report sketches ideas about which directions to pursue in analyzing data presents a brief description of how to assess local statistical capacity and includes sample work plans and budgets to give surveyors estimates of how long each process will take

Household Welfare and Vietnam's Transition David Dollar, Paul Glewwe, Jennie Ilene Litvack, 1998-01-01 Vietnam's rapid growth has transformed the country reducing poverty from about 75 percent of the population to about 50 percent At the same time its transition from a planned to a market economy has created new challenges for public policy in a wide range of areas This volume explores issues such as which macroeconomic and structural reforms led to growth what effect reform has had on the household economy and how the transition has affected education health fertility and child nutrition It provides an analysis of economic and social policies and shows how micro level data can be used to analyze the likely effect of different government expenditures and activities It also focuses on the effect different policies have on the poor and challenges stereotypes about poverty focused expenditures

Chronic Non-communicable Diseases in Low and Middle-income Countries Ama de-Graft Aikins, Charles Agyemang, 2015-12-17 Low and middle income countries in Africa Asia and Latin America bear a significant proportion of the global burden of chronic non communicable diseases This book synthesizes evidence across countries that share similar socio economic developmental and public health profiles including rapid urbanization globalization and poverty Providing insights on successful and sustainable interventions and policies it shows how to slow and reverse the rising burden of chronic diseases in resource poor settings

The Role of the Private Sector in Education in Vietnam Paul Glewwe, Harry Anthony Patrinos, 1998 As part of the restructuring of the educational system in 1989 the Vietnamese government implemented policy changes such as promoting the establishment of people's and community educational institutions permitting the establishment of private institutions and transforming public institutions into private ones Since Vietnam has only recently moved from a centrally planned to a market economy private schools are still relatively rare in Vietnam This paper examines the nature of private schooling in Vietnam using data from the 1992-93 Vietnam Living Standards Survey Designing Household Survey Questionnaires for Developing Countries : Lessons from 15 Years of the Living Standards Measurement Study Margaret E. Grosh, Paul Glewwe, 2000 Comprehensive and informative document on the design implementation and use of household surveys in developing countries Health and Wealth in Vietnam Nguyen Nguyet Nga, Truong Thi Kim Chuyen, Sarah Bales, Jonathan Haughton, 1999 How do Vietnamese households live and work This book answers many of the most important questions including Who uses contraceptives Which children get the most health care Who are the poor and why are they poor Which families migrate Why do so many rural workers change jobs Where do households get credit What drives rice production The result of a unique collaboration between Vietnamese and international social scientists the fourteen concise chapters paint a fascinating picture of household health and wealth All are based on the Vietnam Living Standards Survey the most accurate and complete source of data available The use of statistical techniques in every chapter gives the book added coherence while providing depth and clarity to the analysis A must for anyone with a serious interest in Vietnam this highly readable book is also designed to serve as a reference work Feed the Future Bangladesh 2018/2019: Zone of influence endline assessment (April 2013 - December 2020) International Food Policy Research Institute (IFPRI), 2023-01-30 Feed the Future seeks to sustainably reduce global poverty hunger and malnutrition by helping partner countries boost agriculture led growth resilience and nutrition Program efforts are designed to impact the population in Zones of Influence ZOI in Feed the Future target countries Progress in achieving Feed the Future s objectives is tracked using population based performance indicators collected at baseline then periodically thereafter The International Food Policy Research Institute IFPRI produced this report for the United States Agency for International Development USAID Bureau for Resilience and Food Security RFS USAID Bangladesh the Government of Bangladesh and development partners The report compares indicator estimates and select demographic and household characteristics from the 2018-2019 ZOI Survey which serves as the Feed the Future Phase One endline survey with the baseline assessment conducted in 2011-2012 in Bangladesh This report only includes the Feed the Future Phase One indicators Secondary data sources are used when needed or appropriate The Feed the Future Phase One ZOI in Bangladesh includes mostly rural areas in 20 districts consisting of 120 upazilas sub districts in three divisions in the south and southwest region of the country This assessment provides information about progress on Feed the Future Phase One ZOI indicators The assessment is designed to show changes in key indicator estimates from the Feed the Future Phase One baseline assessment to the endline assessment The Feed the Future ZOI Survey endline assessment however was not designed to support conclusions of causality or program attribution LSMS Working Paper Victor Lavy, 1995 This study estimates the incidence characteristics and patterns of change over time of illiteracy in Morocco The study compares the results from direct literacy assessment to the conventional methods of self reported literacy This effort has provided more detailed objective information with which patterns of literacy skills in the country may be determined and their relationship to other important social and economic behaviors and outcomes analyzed It also examines more closely the reliability and validity of common proxy indicators used to estimate literacy rates and skill levels Results show that Morocco has been able to halve its literacy rate during the last 30 years however large disparities remain between men and women and between urban and rural areas Implications for methods of measuring literacy and for formulating policy to increase literacy are discussed EH
